Some Christmas Entertainments.

Central Union Sunday School had a fine time in the church parlors last evening. Children and grown people, not forgetting Santa Claus, were present.

Kawaihau Seminary closed yesterday and, in the evening, a Christmas cantata by the girls of the institution was sung for parents and friends.

The Kamehameha boys gave an entertainment in the gymnasium last evening for the poor boys of Kalihi. This is a charitable work that the Kamehameha boys put before their own Christmas pleasure every year. The cheer it brings to many hearts is certainly ample pay for the boy's trouble.

On Monday night, the Kamehameha boys will have their own Christmas entertainment in Bishop hall. The Cineograph will be one of the features.

The Chinese young men, who look to Frank Damon as their leader in good works, will have their Christmas festivities this evening.

The Kawaihau Sunday School children will have their Christmas tree at the church Wednesday evening.

Jack Atkinson's Treat.

The boat boys, some sixteen in all, were given a Christmas dinner at the Honolulu restaurant by A. L. C. Atkinson at 11 a. m. today. Jack has for many years been a favorite of the boys at the landing and whenever there are any big boat races on, he has always gone to them for a crew which he has been wont to back to the last.

Ran Away From Home.

John K. Harbottle of this city has been missing for several days and only yesterday was it learned that he had taken passage on the S. N. Castle as cabin boy. His parents, residents of this city, had no notification whatever from the young man. He simply left home and decided to run away.

Got Six Months.

J. Sniffen, the native who was caught stealing sugar cane a few nights ago, was given six months' imprisonment at hard labor by Judge Wilcox this morning on the charge of vagrancy. Sniffen will find in Oahu jail, an old haunt.

Election of Officers.

At the Annual Meeting of the stockholders of the Hawaiian Sugar Co. held this day, the following Officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: H. P. Baldwin, President. W. G. Irwin, Vice-President. J. P. Cooke, Treasurer. W. L. Hopper, Secretary. The above named, together with J. F. Hackfeld, C. M. Cooke and R. Catton constitute the Board of Directors, Dec. 22, 1898. W. L. HOPPER, Secretary. 1100-6t

Anchor Saloon Looks Like New.

What with the work of skilled carpenters and painters and the artistic taste of John D. Holt of the firm of Lovejoy & Co., the Anchor saloon has blossomed forth and can now hold its own with the best in the city.

The bar and walls have been brightened up by fresh colors and the floor where the tables are, has been covered with linoleum. On the walls hang beautiful paintings picked out by Mr. Holt while he was in the States.

On Christmas day, Monday, December 26, the Anchor saloon will serve turkey, egg nog and other things palatable, to its patrons.

No Scarcity of Turkeys for Xmas.

The Metropolitan Meat Co. will receive by the Miowera, from Winnipeg, a large consignment of turkeys, geese, chickens and ducks.

Also by S. S. Anstralia from California, a consignment of California turkeys and wild game.

Also have Hawaiian turkeys, both dressed and alive, for sale at their store.

Christian Benevolence.

Rev. Mr. Kekipi, Mrs. Robert W. Wilcox and others have presented an organ to the chapel at the Kalibi experiment station. This chapel is available for the services of any Christian denomination, having been erected for the benefit of the unfortunate inmates without regard to creed.

James Thompson has returned from Maui.

C. V. E. Dove, the surveyor, returned in the Kinau this morning. Minister Cooper is back to his office, having left his hoarseness at home.

H. M. Whitney Jr., returned in the Lehua last night after a pleasant fortnight's trip to Molokai. The bicycle riders who are to take part in the Kahului meet on New Year's day, will leave in the Claudine Tuesday afternoon.

Chillingworth—Stratemeyer nuptials in St Andrew's Cathedral at 8 o'clock this evening. Reception later at the home on Emma street.
